Joyce Burnham of Custom Stockdogs has been working with sheep and stock dogs for over twenty years; her experience includes cattle and ducks. Joyce is a clinician and a competitor in USBHA and she is licensed to judge AKC herding events.

Bring Your Lunch/Chair/Crate and whatever you need for you and your dog.

Please note that there are two price scales for the clinics. One is for pre pay participants and the other is for those who chose to pay the day of the clinic.

There are also two price scales according to location and number of clinics held in the location in a year.

The Evansville, Indiana locations offer clinics almost every month and is much closer for me to travel. As a result, we offer a different fee at that location.

Payment for prepay prices are due the Friday one week before each Clinic.

Send check for reservation to the address according to location of clinic and follow the price scale on the next page.

Please submit form by email also indicating that you have sent a check or that you are going to pay at the clinic.

You can submit the form at any time before the clinic so we know when to expect you to arrive.

This notification can be done by regular email without the form or by phone also.

PRICE SCALE FOR CUSTOMSTOCKDOGS CLINICS

The one and two day prices are for lessons which include two runs each day with each dog registered. These runs or lessons last approximately 15 minutes. We try to separate the runs for each dog so that there is as much rest for the dog in between as time allows. We also set our running order as much as we can by the time you arrive at the Clinic and by your schedule. This means if you need to leave early for another commitment, we will try to get your second run in a little earlier if we can.

Along these same lines, we like you to be prompt in the AM if you know you need to leave early. Likewise, if you arrive later in the day that is fine, we will put you in the rotation but you will be one of the later to finish.

NOTICE I HAVE RENAMED THE NAME OF THE SECOND TYPE OF RUN OFFERED.

I do not offer an official AKC Instinct Test at these clinics because those have to be given at an official AKC event. What I am offering is a shorter run for immature, or inexperienced dogs to get them prepared for lessons. These runs are one time each day for each dog registered and last 5 to 10 minutes.

I am including this explanation and name change because this seems to be the most frequently asked question this Spring.
